Gabriel Sedlak is a father, husband, entrepreneur, speaker, podcaster, trainer, coach, and author. Having spent the majority of the last 30 years in network marketing, he has experienced a little bit of everything. When you see someone's success, all too often the backstory and the hardships are omitted. But that is one thing people desperately need to hear the most. He shares personal struggles, the act of self-sabotage, and the tendencies of human nature that hold us back from pushing forward and achieving massive success. He always makes sure that part is shared because THAT is what helps people realize they are not crazy for pressing forward. Over the years, he has dealt with personal ridicule when sharing new opportunities, slanderous false accusations from close acquaintances, extreme unforeseen financial challenges, and the pressure of pioneering “opportunities” from “nothing”.

But isn't that the background of almost every truly inspiring success story? You know that there is something over the horizon that must be apprehended. So you continue to press on when everything is shouting the contrary. You know your life will NEVER be the same once you get there, and you won't stop until you get it! It's these examples and even more importantly the incredible victories and stories of winning and winning BIG that has encouraged people all over the world to follow him and the hope he shares.

Gabriel knows firsthand the magnificence that arises in you when you mentally and physically decide to draw your sword and fight for your dreams. In Cut It Out, he explains how network marketing is simply an engine; it's a propellant to push you toward your dreams. There's nothing like the freedom of being your own boss, providing additional income for your family, and locking arms with a community of people who have chosen to win no matter what in life.

In this book, Gabriel will convince you that success is not for the select few. Success is reserved for those that are both resolute of mind and who are able to win the war that rages between the ears. On the other side of winning that battle, is a life full of unlimited potential!

If you are sick of "losing" then take these critical points to heart:

1. You have to be willing to take massive action steps NOW... and continuously.
2. You have to learn then master the act of ignoring the opinions of others. If you allow them to snare you, THEY WILL!
3. Accept the fact that YOU are worthy and deserve to have great things in life.
4. The unique dreams in your heart CANNOT be accomplished by anyone else but YOU.

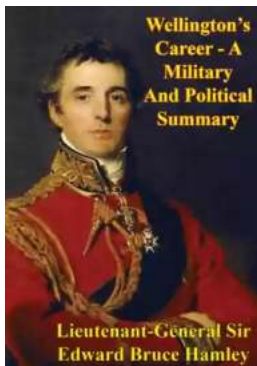

5. Time and money were designed to SERVE YOU - you were NOT designed to serve money and time.
6. Nobody will fight for you and your family as you will. NOBODY. Don't be fooled.

Written with the purpose of getting your head straight, this book is for the entrepreneurs, the fighters, and the winners. This book is a weapon to use in your mental arsenal to re-ignite your vision and not waste any more of your days! As you read through the pages, the things that have been holding you back in your life will start to reveal themselves... in those moments, grab your sword and CUT IT OUT!
