The Mystical Isle of Skye: Quiraing and Fairy Pools

Our next stop takes us to the mystical Isle of Skye, an otherworldly paradise filled with breathtaking landscapes and hidden wonders. Two natural attractions on this dramatic island will leave you spellbound: the Quiraing and the Fairy Pools.

The Ambulatus Edinburgh chapter includes three Potter Maps and four suggested Potter Trek Itineraries to help you visit JKR haunts such as:

* Nicholson's Restaurant (Site #54)--now the Spoon Café Bistro--which was the primary Philosopher's Stone writing site.

* The Elephant House (Site #51); in spite of tourist hype, this was a secondary Philosopher's Stone writing site.

* The Balmoral Hotel (Site #50), where Rowling finished writing Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows in 2007.

HPP Book Five Part Two: The Scottish West Highlands

Here is where you'll find the magical mountains and glens, rivers and lochs, seen in aerial shots of the countryside surrounding Hogwarts Castle. Many memorable

Hogwarts Express scenes were shot in the Scottish West Highlands. This section of Book Five will help you:

- * Visit--or even lodge near--the site where Hagrid's Hut was filmed for Prisoner of Azkaban, Order of the Phoenix, Half-Blood Prince, and Deathly Hallows.

- * Skip stones from the shore of Glen Etive's Loch, where Ron was filmed teaching Hermione to skip stones in deleted Deathly Hallows Part One scenes.

- * Personally experience Harry's journey to Hogwarts by boarding a train similar to the Hogwarts Express and traveling over the iconic Glenfinnan Viaduct.
