Would you like to go on a trip across Latin America, from Argentina to Mexico, on a motor home that works as a travelling café?

Do you dare walk along paths that are not shown on any maps; that intrigue and present you with unexpected surprises?

Do you dare open your heart, break structures and listen to other people's experiences?

That's what we did as a family, and we can assure you will be surprised by the stories we've heard and by their characters.

Have you heard of the "Legend of 'El Tío'" in the Potosí mines? Or about the Guatemalan community that brutally punished a criminal? Do you know what a mysterious shaman taught us about circular time?

A seven year old child that escapes slavery to find his family in Nicaragua; a love story by a clear lake in Argentinean Patagonia; black magic and the magic of markets; travelling children; a haunted motorcycle; the story of Death itself; a war survivor who keeps on fighting after three decades... All of them and many others shared their life stories with us so that they could travel from their lands to your ears.

Latin Echoes is a compilation of the most intense, heart-rending, romantic and significant stories that made a mark on us throughout these years of travelling.

Inspired by them and always respecting the essence of the facts, we wrote these tales so you could read about all these realities that coexist in Latin America. It is a trip through cultural diversity, the warmth of its people and the colourfulness of its traditions.

Become a part of this inspiring, motivating journey. Get away from your routine for a moment and find out what lies on the other side. Discover them and discover yourself.
