

Life On Wheels: Part Out Of North America Until The End

For many people, the concept of living life on wheels is a dream come true. The freedom to travel wherever the heart desires, the ability to explore new places and meet new people - it is an adventure unlike any other.

Life on wheels is not limited to a specific region or country; it is a global phenomenon. However, in this article, we will focus on the experiences of individuals who have taken their life on wheels out of the confines of North America. From Europe to Asia, and even down under in Australia, these avid travelers have embarked on a journey that knows no boundaries.

Life on Wheels in Europe

Europe, with its rich history, diverse cultures, and stunning landscapes, offers endless opportunities for those pursuing a life on wheels. From the cobblestone streets of Paris to the winding roads of Tuscany, there is always something new to discover.

One such adventurer, Sarah, embarked on a year-long road trip across Europe. With her trusty camper van, she traversed countries like France, Spain, Italy, and Germany. From camping in picturesque meadows to waking up to breathtaking views of the Swiss Alps, Sarah's journey was nothing short of magical.

She immersed herself in the local culture, sampled delectable cuisines, and made lifelong connections with fellow travelers. Life on wheels allowed her to truly experience the essence of Europe - its history, art, and people.

Life on Wheels in Asia

Asia, with its vibrant colors, bustling cities, and serene landscapes, presents a whole new world to those who choose life on wheels. From the ornate temples of Thailand to the mighty Himalayas of Nepal, the continent offers a myriad of experiences waiting to be explored.

Meet Mark, a seasoned traveler who has spent several years living life on wheels in Asia. From the chaotic streets of India to the tranquil beaches of Bali, Mark has witnessed the diversity and beauty of the continent firsthand.

One of the highlights of his journey was a road trip through the remote regions of Mongolia. From sleeping under the stars in a traditional ger to encountering nomadic tribes, Mark's journey was filled with incredible encounters and unique experiences.

Life on Wheels Down Under

Australia, known for its vast outback, stunning coastlines, and iconic wildlife, is a paradise for those seeking a life on wheels. From the famous Great Ocean Road to the stunning landscapes of the Kimberley, the country offers countless adventures for nomadic explorers.

Emma, a passionate traveler, embarked on a year-long road trip across Australia. With her trusty four-wheel drive, she explored the rugged beauty of the Outback, camped under starlit skies, and swam with dolphins in crystal-clear waters.

Life on wheels in Australia allowed Emma to connect with nature on a profound level. From encountering kangaroos hopping along the road to witnessing the majesty of Uluru at sunrise, every moment was a reminder of the beauty and vastness of the land Down Under.

Life on wheels is not limited by geographical boundaries. From the cobblestone streets of Europe to the bustling cities of Asia, and the rugged outback of Australia, individuals around the world have embraced the freedom and adventure that comes with living life on wheels.

The experiences shared by Sarah, Mark, and Emma are just a glimpse into the incredible journeys that await those who choose to embark on this nomadic lifestyle. So, pack your bags, hit the road, and let life on wheels take you on an unforgettable adventure that transcends borders.

This book tells the story of Sjaak Lucassen who spent more than five years crisscrossing the world on a Yamaha R1.

Sjaak covered nearly 250,000 km, passed through 75 countries and had countless adventures.

‘Life on 2 wheels’ gives you the opportunity to live through this marathon journey. With his travel stories and a healthy dose of humour, Sjaak takes you to the far corners of the earth!

Part 3 – out of 3 – covers about 2 years of his travel in which he left the comfort of his home in Europe and started traveling, taking time as his friend. After crossing Africa (part 1) and all the South and Central American continental countries (part 2) he travels in this final part through North America, Asia, the Middle East and via Egypt back to Europe.

Select this part 3 ONLY if you got part 1 and 2 already, because now that ALL parts are translated you can select Life on 2 Wheels (the one with the different cover), which contains the ENTIRE story!
