So you've gotten into K-pop. Yay! It's fun, right?

You may have even worked your way around the language barrier by reading fan translations and marveling at the overachievers who're learning to read and write Hangul. But when stans start throwing around words like idol, fighting, and all-kill, are you left scratching your head in confusion? What's with all the comments after BTS's Jin posts a dad joke? And why are people buying bongs for upcoming concerts? That's not even legal. (Or is it?) So How to Speak K-pop Like a True Fan is here to help you out with some K-pop words and phrases that may not be in your vocabulary... yet.
