Gracie's turning point came during her high school years when she stumbled upon an old travel journal that belonged to her late grandmother. Leafing through its pages, she discovered tales of extraordinary expeditions and breathtaking photographs that ignited a flame within her. Gracie knew it was time to break free from her comfort zone and embark on her own extraordinary journey.

Chapter 2: Embracing the Unknown

With unwavering determination, Gracie set out on her first solo backpacking trip across Europe. Stepping foot in foreign lands, she felt a mix of excitement and nervousness. Every step she took, every new culture she immersed herself in, Gracie's perspective on life began to shift.

Over the years, Gracie's travel adventures took her to countless destinations. From climbing the towering peaks of the Himalayas to skydiving over the Great Barrier Reef, she fearlessly embraced every new challenge that came her way. Her captivating stories along with mesmerizing photographs became a testament to her indomitable spirit and inspired countless individuals to pursue their dreams.

Grandparenting Ain't What it Used To Be--now that's an understatement. Today's grandparents often work full time, care for their own aging parents, love to travel and hobby and don't have enough time for all the events in their calendar. So how can you become a loving, doting, giving grandparent?

Your challenge:

How can I have fun with my grandchildren and yet teach them time-honored values?

Is it possible to help my kids be parents without interfering?

How can I teach these little ones about Jesus?

You're not "off your rocker" to think you can do this. Gracie Malone--mother, grandmother, author, speaker, and now encourager to you--shares lighthearted lessons to make your grandparenting experience easier, more rewarding and, well, downright fun!

Gracie Malone is author and co-author of several books including LifeOvers, Still Making Waves, and Kisses of Sunshine for Grandmas. She lives in Grapevine Texas with her husband Joe. They are parents of three adult sons and have six grandchildren.
