From long, straight stretches through the Australian Outback to winding mountain roads in New Zealand, there is no shortage of exhilarating rides to be had. Soak in the freedom and adventure as you explore these vast countries on two wheels.

Breathtaking Scenery

One of the greatest appeals of riding in Australia and New Zealand is the spectacular scenery that surrounds you at every turn. In Australia, you can witness the stunning red rocks and vast plains of the Outback, or venture along the breathtaking coastal routes that offer views of pristine beaches and rugged cliffs.

In New Zealand, be prepared to be awestruck by the majestic snow-capped mountains, crystal-clear lakes, and lush green landscapes that seem straight out of a postcard. The diversity of landscapes in both countries will keep you mesmerized throughout your journey, with ever-changing scenery that will take your breath away.

Cultural Encounters

Exploring the rich and vibrant cultures of Australia and New Zealand is an experience like no other. From the indigenous people of Australia, with their deep spiritual connections to the land, to the unique Maori culture of New Zealand, you will have the opportunity to immerse yourself in fascinating traditions and histories.

Visit the incredible Uluru-Kata Tjuta National Park in Australia and learn about the intricate Dreamtime stories that have shaped the culture of the indigenous people for thousands of years. In New Zealand, attend a traditional Maori cultural show and witness the powerful performances of the haka, a traditional war dance that will leave you in awe.

In addition to the indigenous cultures, both countries also boast vibrant arts scenes, culinary delights, and friendly locals who are always eager to share their customs and stories. As you make your way through towns and cities, take the time to engage with the locals and discover the true heart and soul of these incredible nations.

I wanted to ride on all the continents and for my next adventure I headed south to New South Wales in Australia to go riding with Kathy at her Kerewong Farm in Australia. It was there that I met my horse "Jimmy" and enjoyed our forest ride, mountain ride, our winery ride and our beach ride.

Then I flew over to ride on the North Island in New Zealand. I met Rod, Bev, and their daughter Georgie. I was introduced to "Alex" and together we went riding in the forest, on the sand dunes, and over miles and miles of beach. In the evening we enjoyed Bev's five star dinners.

The friendship, delicious meals, and riding adventure from being "Down Under" certainly makes me want to return. I hope you enjoy reading this adventure and it inspires you to visit these wonderful and friendly countries.....Tom
