Ever since my mother and I moved to North Allen, my life has changed completely. Without knowing, I became the target of the school's bully, got punched in the face, and all this in less than a week!

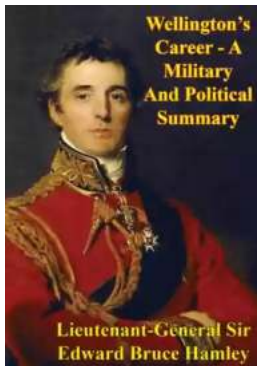

On the good side, I've met Linus Saint-Pierre, a cool boy who loves gummy bears and whose biggest dream is to gather a team to participate in the Group Battles of his favorite online video game.

To be honest... I couldn't refuse to help him. On our journey we'll be joined by a taciturn pianist, a very blond, theater-loving guy, as well as the former high school's "queen bee".

How does Linus seem to anticipate all of my troubles? And... why do I miss him even more with each passing day?
