As we continue down the windy road of wacky behaviors keep your seat belt buckled. The world of veterinary was unlike anything I expected. I thought my time in professional sports would give me the greatest amount of exposure to ego's, Prima Dona's, drug users, and rule breakers but Vets, staff, and pet owners, put everyone else in the back seat.

I believe the stories from my time with veterinary clinics were some of the strangest because you least expect it there. When you throw in the extreme emotions and attachments of animals and their owners, along with easy access to in-house pharmacies, and of course ego's (which flourish everywhere). It made for a surprising arena of continued madness that trailed along the magnet of my life. Volume 2 continues the wild ride of Magnet to Madness!
