

The Heartwarming Connection Between Humans and Dogs: Dear Robin Letters To My Dog

Dogs have been considered humans' best friends for centuries. They provide us companionship, loyalty, love, and unquestioning support. It is no wonder that many people turn to their furry friends in times of both joy and sorrow. In a world where technology dominates our communication, one unique project stands out - Dear Robin Letters To My Dog. Through heartfelt letters, this project celebrates the deep bond between humans and their beloved canine companions.

The Origin of Dear Robin Letters To My Dog

Dear Robin Letters To My Dog is an online community where dog owners can share their heartfelt letters dedicated to their four-legged friends. The project was inspired by Robin, a loyal and loving Golden Retriever who sadly passed away after a long life filled with love and happiness. Robin's human, Emily, wanted a way to honor the special bond they shared and help others do the same.

Emily started by writing a letter to Robin, pouring her heart out, expressing her feelings, and sharing precious memories. She found solace and healing through these words. Realizing the power of such letters, she decided to create a platform where people from all walks of life could do the same - pour their hearts out to their canine companions.

Robin was a sweet Pomeranian Dog born 20th of October 2010. His loving family adopted him on New Year Day of 2011. This loving dog was shy at first due to his sickly body, but he started to develop his personality. Robin loved attention. Runways and photoshoots really appealed to him. What was surprising was his love for children. Robin loved kids. He doesn't mind them rolling around with him or pulling his hair. It was a good thing he loved volunteering. His favorite food is spaghetti and peanut butter.

April 2018, he was infected with ehrlichiosis. Due to the heatwave, he did not survive. This book is a reflection of everything the writer would like to share about Robin and his colorful life. There was never a dog loved as much as he was.
