In a world full of flesh eating creatures, sometimes humans are the more terrifying monsters.

It's been three months since revolution swept through the city of Cherai and ousted Councilwoman King. The city now has a chance to recover from decades of injustice and oppression. With the help of Ben, Songhay, and the Gemini Gang, Niko works towards building a more egalitarian society.

But someone is murdering Slither hunters.

And coupled with the councilwoman's reappearance, all of Niko's hard work balances on a precarious precipice - one wrong move and it will all be for naught.

As the number of bodies rise and tensions within the city increase, Niko is soon forced to make a difficult decision. And it could change everything.
