The 2013/2014 fourth edition of this travel guidebook covers more than 40 scenic drives in Alaska, the Yukon Territory, and Canada's Northwest Territories, as well as the Alaska Highway through British Columbia and Alaska, also access routes that get you into the north country. Fraser Bridges' informal suggestions make your trips enjoyable. Route maps and highway logs provide mile-by-mile descriptions of the drives covering state, provincial and national parks, picnic areas, plus villages, towns, cities and scenery along the way. Getting there is more than half the fun.

Bridges' recommendations for hundreds of restaurants, and accommodations including hotels, B&Bs inns, campgrounds and RV parks are focussed on places that provide local color and hospitality. Chapters are introduced with color images of Alaska and Yukon and NWT locations. Ferry routes to Alaska are also covered.

Fraser Bridges' travel, adventure, and nature guides take you into some of the most beautiful natural places in North America, on scenic roads and highways.
