Betrayal is a hard pill to swallow.

I get it; Rivers is the black sheep of our pack, a closed book, and a dark mystery. He never lets anyone in, but the one thing I do know about him is that he's loyal. He always has been, so finding out he was responsible for one of the greatest betrayals against me was absolutely shattering.

Like I said; betrayal is a hard pill to swallow.

We're a mess.

Our pack has been torn apart from the inside out. Tully is struggling to keep herself together, Noah is quickly discovering the limits of his temper, Rivers is nowhere to be seen, and me? Well, I've been acting like some kind of raging bitch and something tells me that this is only just the beginning.

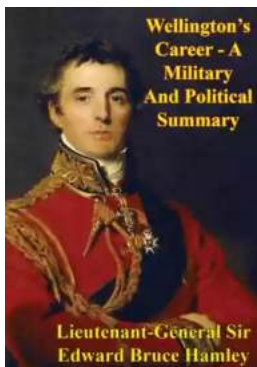

When will this end?

I need a sign that things are going to get better. I thought that nearly losing Tully was the worst that could happen.

I never expected it could get worse. So much worse.
