It is hard to be Miami. It is always hard to break stereotypes and prove the point that you are not just a bunch of extremely expensive skyscrapers, upscale hotels and beach front night clubs of Miami Beach.

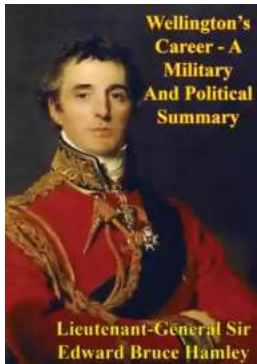

If you don't want to be disappointed or have a stereotypical aftertaste it is better to explore Miami as all the other big cities. That is why the main character of this book is the city so clear-cut and untravelled at the same time.

So, Miami? What can this city offer to anybody who gets there?

Endless summer, contemporary and street art, wild and unique nature, a mixture of different cultures and many other things.

Come and simply fall in love with this city or at least fall for it a little bit keeping the hope that you will come there again.

In this book, I picked up the pictures of not only the most famous touristic places but also the places that in my mind deserved the same amount of attention. I am glad to share my impressions with You. Welcome to the Miami world.
